St. Regis Group wins at PPAI Supplier Achievement Awards

Worldwide leader in recognition wins 5 honors at the January PPAI Expo in Las Vegas.

CHICAGO – January 10, 2017 – The St. Regis Group is thrilled to announce the achievements of three divisions (The Prestige Group, R.S. Owens and St. Regis Crystal) at the Suppliers Achievement Awards, held in conjunction with the 2017 PPAI Expo at the Mandalay Bay Convention Center in Las Vegas, January 10, 2017. Suppliers Achievement Awards are given for excellence in various promotional product categories and are considered the epitome of recognition for our industry.

The Prestige Group earned a Gold award in the category of Best Customized Product. Their entry featured a unique menu from a rustic winery printed on multi-layers of starfire crystal. Prestige also won a silver honor for Best Multi-Colored Printing with a product consisting of two rectangular panels of flawless starfire crystal bolted together with aluminum hardware from the Prestige catalog for a casino wishing to commemorate major gaming events.

R.S. Owens won a silver award for Best Mascot/Character Development. The product featured an antique bronze finished cast metal statue of the “grim reaper” created for ihorror.com, a movie distributor. A second honor was given for the Most Creative Entry and featured an intricate new crystal award sculpture from the R.S. Owens catalog called the Valhalla, #9848.19.

Finally St Regis Crystal earned their silver award in the Special Processes category for their new and innovative VividPrint™ 3D raised print process. The winning piece was a striking VividPrint™ 3D years of service plaque.

Recognition from the peers of our industry is a truly meaningful accomplishment. The St. Regis Group is excited to once again be honored in these competitive fields. The five awards earned at the PPAI contest support the reputation for quality, customer service and innovation that has made The St. Regis Group the leader in awards and recognition in North America.
