

Selco Promotes Gavin Little to National Sales Manager

Tulsa, OK –May 21, 2018 – Selco, a custom watch manufacturer and supplier company, is pleased to announce the promotion of Gavin Little as our new National Sales Manager. Gavin has worked for Selco for 3 years and has been an invaluable member of the sales team.

“I’m very excited with my new role at Selco and I’m embracing the added responsibility,” says Little. “It’s quite an honor to have Selco place such value in me and I’m willing to do whatever it takes to meet the expectations of this great company.”

“Gavin has always shown initiative in the performance of his duties, going above and beyond what is expected of him,” said Mark Abels, CEO of Selco. “He has brought huge levels of innovation and been a valued team member since day one.”

During his time as Account Manager, Little led several big projects to completion and has been highly influential in the creation of Selco’s new product lines. He continues to show exemplary commitment to his role as National Sales Manager, and is “looking forward to having a record setting final two quarters of the year!”

Established in 1935, Selco is most-known as the “The Original Logo Watch Company.” Based in the USA, Selco is an American-made manufacturer and supplier of custom imprinted and medallion timepieces, providing exceptional customer service and product to the awards, recognition, and promotional product industries through their Selco Geneve® and A*belle® Promotional Time brands.
